

Even Here

Written by Rebekah Dawn

Copyright 2018

Verse 1

You have a plan for me, even though I cannot always understand
Beyond what I can see, I know that I am held within your hands
So I will trust in You, and I will lift a song of praise
For You will never, ever change, no matter what I'm going through

Chorus

Even here, Your Name is "Healer," even here, You are still good
Even here I will exalt You and lift up praises as I should
For even here, Your power is greater, I will choose to glorify
The power of Your wisdom, though I live or though I die
Your ways are perfect, Your Name is "Healer," and You are good

Verse 2

You hold my destiny, so I can look with eyes of faith to what will come
Not moved by what I see, and without every growing weary, I will run
And I will testify of Your wisdom that is greater and Your power that is stronger
For You conquered death with life

Bridge

Oh, Your plan for me is good, Your plan for me is good, Your plan for me is good
No matter what the days may hold
Your plan for me is good, Your plan for me is good, Your plan for me is good
No matter what, You're in control